BSF launches HR-Plus Program for SMEs

STAFF REPORTER

LAHORE: SME Business Support Fund, Ministry of Finance has recently launched its HR Plus program for SME development in Pakistan. Syed Saquib Mohyuddin, CEO BSF while talking to the media here mentioned that this program has been started to introduce professional management in the SMEs.

He mentioned that BSF has decided to take a sector based approach for SME development and the sector selection has been based purely on the contribution of that sector to the country's GDP-exports and employment generation capability for which a detailed value chain analysis has been conducted.
